CHICAGO, IL, May 8, 2009 – Radius Solutions, Ltd, the leading business information management systems provider for the packaging industry, announced confirmation of both keynote speakers for its North America PECAS Vision Users Conference, to be held July 8-10, 2009 at the Hilton Suites in downtown Chicago, IL, USA.

The focus of this year's conference is reducing inefficiencies, reusing knowledge and recycling resources. In fitting in with this theme, Channeled Resources CEO, Calvin Frost will be addressing the issue of sustainability and how companies can foster waste reduction through materials reuse, as part of their efforts toward Green initiatives. Tom Polischuk, Editor-in-Chief of packagePRINTING Magazine has also been confirmed as a speaker. He will be presenting an industry overview including key trends for 2009 and beyond.

As with last year's conference, both keynote presentations will be on the first day, with additional sessions and workshops over the second and third days of the conference. "We are excited to have two such highly accomplished industry experts to share their experience and views on key issues of the day for packaging companies," said David Taylor, President and CEO of Radius Solutions.

The North America Users Conference is specifically designed to help clients maximize the value of their investment in Radius Solutions. Along with informative sessions, application training workshops and peer networking opportunities, the conference is instrumental in providing a forum for input into the PECAS Vision product roadmap. The product roadmap helps to shape the future development and releases of the application.
